ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 5, 1901.

PRICE 2 CTS.

MEDICINAL.
"I hope others will do as I did."

"I suffered for six years with ovarian trouble," writes Mrs. E. Waite, of Chicago, Ill. (Lake View Postoffice.) "Sometimes I could hardly walk, and when I had to cough it felt as though a knife was cutting me. My hands and feet were cold all the time. I had such a tired feeling and such a poor appetite, and when I went to bed I slept only about two hours at a time. I got a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' and by the time I had used two bottles I felt so much better that I continued until I had taken eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and now I am so well that my friends remark how well I am looking. I go to bed now and sleep till morning. My appetite is splendid and that tired feeling has left me. I hope others will do as I did—give Dr. Pierce's medicines a fair trial."

DO YOU suffer from Nervous Prostration, Falling of the Hair, Loss of Memory, Impotency, Nightly Emission, Shrunken or Underdeveloped Organs, Youthful Errors, Excessive Use of Tobacco or Opium? Rent by mail on receipt of price. DR. PIERCE'S NERVE AND BRAIN PILLS. CHEMICAL CO., CLEVELAND, OHIO.

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED.
Two colored men, Jim Danson and a half-brother, were taken Thursday night about 10 o'clock from the county jail at Madison, Fla., by persons unknown, carried into the woods about a half mile from town and hanged. The bodies were riddled with bullets. They are the two men who, a few weeks ago, were charged with the killing of Frederick Redding, a farmer residing in the vicinity of Madison. They fled to Georgia, were arrested and taken back to Florida and confined in the Leon county jail. As there was some fear of lynching if they were taken to Madison before court was held, an order had been issued and published calling a special term of the circuit court, to be held on the 7th instant, and the sheriff had been ordered to lodge the prisoners in jail to await the action of the court. The train bearing them was slowed up about a mile from town and the prisoners taken through the woods to jail. While attending an entertainment at the hotel on Thursday night, given by the Knights of Pythias, the sheriff was informed that some one wished to see him. On reaching the street the keys of the jail were demanded of him. He refused saying that he did not have them, but several men seized him and succeeded in getting them. To repair to the jail and execute their purpose was the work of a short time. The night was cold and rainy. There was no noise or excitement, and but few citizens knew of the lynching until this morning. The sound of the firing of guns was heard by many, but no notice was taken of it, as during Christmas and New Year's holidays the explosion of fireworks in town and the firing of pistols on the suburbs was of nightly occurrence. From the number of empty cartridges found at the place, it is estimated that the number of the lynchings was a hundred or more. The mob is supposed to have been made up of Redding's friends. They wore masks and no one was recognized by the sheriff.

A BRUTAL CRIME.
The death of a 15-year-old daughter of Holland K. Miller, a farmer of North Branch district, six miles east of Cumberland, Md., and the illness of another daughter brings to light a revolting crime said to have been committed a few nights previous by two young men under Woodrow and Ober. During the absence of the father of the girls, it is said, they entered the house with drawn revolvers and stayed all night. The girls were both assaulted and one girl has since died as the result of the brutal treatment. The men were both treated in a most inhuman manner. The men are said to be desperate characters, who have been working on the Baltimore and Ohio cut-off at Patterson's creek, and it is believed it will be a hard task to catch them. The other daughter of Mr. Miller is reported very ill and may not recover. There is no constable in North Branch. The constables of Cumberland refuse to go out of their district, not caring to take risks with such desperate men and, as a last resort, Officers Edward O'Neil and Charles V. Goss, recognized as two of the most fearless men on the Cumberland police force, have taken up the case and will pursue the men, who are believed to be in the neighborhood. They have, it is declared, been the leaders of a lawless force around the scene of the new work and it is believed an effort will be made to prevent their arrest. The whole country is aroused by the result of the revolting crime. The names of the girls are Minnie M. and Virginia Miller. It could not be learned definitely which one died, but it is understood it was Minnie.

DRUNKEN DUCKS.—There was considerable of an uproar at the big poultry show in West Chester, Pa., Thursday night, due to a mischief-maker, and for fully half an hour pandemonium reigned among the fowls. During the absence of the superintendent some one fed the ducks whisky-soaked corn, when they became intoxicated and engaged in a desperate combat. The uproar excited all the fowls in the vicinity of the drunken ducks, and a scene of wild disorder prevailed, that threatened at one time to break up the show for the night. But the unruly fowls were finally overcome and placed in durance vile, and then peace reigned once more.

Exposure to a sudden climatic change produces cold in the head and catarrh is apt to follow. Provided with Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh. Price 50 cents at Druggists, or Ely Brothers, 58 Warren Street, New York, will mail it. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and inflamed surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation, cleanses and cures. Cream Balm quickly cures the cold.

Pepin preparations of an fall to relieve indigestion because they can digest only aluminum foods. There is one preparation that digests all classes of food, and that is Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It cures the worst cases of indigestion and gives instant relief, for it digests what you eat.

SOMETHING NEW FOR GIRLS & BOYS
During the past year "St. Nicholas" Magazine, which has been for nearly thirty years the leading children's monthly magazine of the world (and now the only one), has introduced several new departments which have been extremely attractive and have greatly increased the circulation. One of these is "NATURE AND SCIENCE," which gives careful attention to every question asked by the young readers. The department contains interesting short articles, beautifully illustrated, telling of the wonders of water, forests, insects, water animals, plants and whatever pertains to Nature.

"ST. NICHOLAS LEAGUE" is an organization of those who read the magazine without dues, and it offers prizes each month for the best drawings, photographs, poems, stories, puzzles and puzzles answers.

No one who does not see "St. Nicholas" can realize what an interesting magazine it is, and how exquisitely it is illustrated. Of literature it contains the choicest, and in art it has never been surpassed by any grown folks' periodical. The new volume begins with November, 1900, and the subscription price is $3 a year.
